ROBLOX's Terms of Service has many loopholes which allows users to get away with nearly anything, such as selling products that have been stolen from other users or using bots for their own gain. The system is also very inconsistent in how it deals with complaints and bans. One of the more infamous examples is user "Sephiroth", who had been banned for attempting to distribute his game, "TitanMC". The ban was eventually lifted, and the account became widely regarded as a joke.[11]

On multiple occasions, ROBLOX has been hacked into by outside sources. In one of the more recent hacks (2021), hackers took advantage of an exploit to provide themselves with unlimited build tools in games. Users without knowledge of the exploit were forced to leave the game because the tools were infinite and other players could not stop them. This issue was not fixed until two days later. [9] ROBLOX has a rule against using bots (automated scripts that allow players to automatically perform actions) but this rule can be easily bypassed due to the fact that users are able to easily create incredibly powerful bots with simple scripting. The easier ROBLOX makes it for users to create powerful scripts, the more likely they are going to be used in botting and/or spamming games. This is one of the reasons why user-created games like "The Plaza" have been taken down.

Farmville: This is yet another example of a game that doesn't really offer any value at all but still manages to make a ton of money. It's a very bizarre concept which involves fun because you think you're going to become rich by buying fake farm products and selling them or you can become popular by posting pictures of your fake farm products and getting attention from people who want similar things. I mean, if this is what people want then it's really no different than Roblox except with Farmville you're dealing with real money.

Her parents did not approve of this decision and they started a petition on Change.org to get their daughter unbanned back on Roblox. They stated that her ban would be a violation of their privacy rights as well as an infringement upon her civil rights, as a minor. The family requested that Roblox reverse its ban of Arielle and instead give her a warning to stop future harassment, which she committed while playing "Minecraft". The petition received more than 50,000 signatures in less than 12 hours. However, it was then reported by users that the petition had been removed from the website soon after it began. As soon as the petition was received by Roblox, it was announced that her account would be reviewed and further action would be taken in response to how she had "been conducting herself online".
