It teaches them how to be helpful, creative, and patient. I am writing about Roblox today because I am fairly new to the game and am trying to get used to it. I have had Roblox for about 6 months now, and I am sort of over it. However, I really love the game. It is a creative game where you can design an avatar and have a house to decorate. I just wanted to write this because I know there are a lot of people who have been searching for my story on Roblox. Everyone has their own opinions on the game, but as soon as I found out that my parents were coming to visit me on Friday, I found out that they were going to be seeing where I spend most of my time playing games online: namely <https://www.roblox.com/>. I was very and extremely shocked that I hadn't clicked on the site before this - it means I really could have been playing the game for a lot longer. A lot of my friends have played this game and now I'm starting to understand why they say it's such an addicting game!

I am not a Minecraft addict, but I do enjoy playing that game. However, that is only because my friends and I play it together. Not because of the millions of dollars or diamonds you can get for free on Roblox. People are obsessed with Roblox; my Facebook account was filled with friends who played Minecraft as if they were addicted to crack. They would constantly post pictures about their new lifesize cardboard builds they worked on at home; taking ages-long breaks between each video to watch more videos of Minecraft. We've all had friends who were that addicted to Roblox in our time, but I have never met one like Sinead who was "deeply miserable" because she was deprived of playing it. That was always the case whenever anyone mentioned it, I'm sure; parents would frequently ask me if and how I managed to get my grades, and teachers would always ask me if we had any homework. Sometimes they'd even assign us essays to write about our time on Roblox; even though a few months before everyone stopped doing them unless they were mandatory.

This is very similar to how Facebook and Google ads work, however, the Roblox ads cannot be clicked on and are only meant as a distraction. Users would need to leave the game before seeing the ad again or wait until they lose interest in playing any other game. The new system was rolled out in large parts making users question ROBLOX's integrity as a company.
