In February 2021, it was reported that a game called "Miner's Haven" has been criticized by Roblox users for having a suicide feature where players would have the option of killing themselves when their health reached zero. The players who played this game received a message from the developer named Master Zen said that he was working on an update that removed this feature. The update was released in March 2021 and it included an anti-suicide feature where the health would reset to 100 instead of 0. However, the developer confirmed that he would "still allow players to commit suicide if they are in the mood". To make up for this issue, Master Zen released a series of development updates that included fixing bugs and adding new features to "Miner's Haven".

The territory restriction on new accounts for "TERA" was lifted in June 2021. At that time, players were also given a free transfer to a North American account. In February 2021, En Masse Entertainment announced plans to merge servers for "TERA" and also announced additional details about Season 2 of "TERA: Rising". The merger began on March 11 with servers down for two hours beginning at 5 am Pacific Time (8:00 UTC). This was followed by two more short downtimes on March 17 and March 26 before all character transfers were completed. The merger of servers resulted in the creation of a single player vs. player server and a single role-playing server. The role-playing server was created to stop the underpopulated game world from splitting into two more servers.[62]

The new design was made to be sharper and cleaner than the former one, and removed many visual effects that were seen as archaic and dated. A few key features of this change include a slightly larger "R", as well as a background shape for it similar to that of a "double-r", which ended up being used for every future iteration of the logo. This design is still used on the website today, albeit with variations in how it is utilized.

Most of the bans these users receive are handed out by administrators but every once in a while a user will get banned for a "troll" video or similar reason. Some are also apparently banned because they made potentially offensive comments in the chatbox, not for any type of post or action that breaks the TOS.

As far as social media goes, I do not personally think that roblox holds much of a candle in terms of maturity when compared to the likes of Twitter or Facebook - but it certainly does not have the childish undertone that you would find on other sites such as Instagram or snapchat either. It has a decent kid-friendly community that is mostly neutral.
